WHEREAS, America's forest resources and forest products are deserving of special consideration because of their many social, economic and environmental benefits; and,

WHEREAS, Proper management of forests is the key to their conservation. Even though forests are a renewable resource, wasteful use can lead to their demise; and,

WHEREAS, Trees are very important to our lives, and South Dakota Forest Products Week is a good time to reflect upon how we can best use the forest resource; and,

WHEREAS, The forest products industry of the Black Hills area is a valuable part of the economy of South Dakota;and,

WHEREAS, The forest industry provides a wide range of benefits, including paper, lumber, furniture, recreation, range, wildlife and watershed protection:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 15 through October 21, 1978, as and urge all of our citizens to join with the forest managers and forest resource industry in a rededication to the wise use of our forest resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations. Further, I urge all citizens to be aware of the benefits of our forests during South Dakota Forest Products Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight
